

HUSBAND

I, _____ choose you, fairest of all women, forsaking all others. You are a princess and a gem of great value. You are mine and I choose to love you as Christ loves His church and gave Himself up for her. I crown your head with loving kindness. I will protect you and defend you. I will be crucified to myself, that you may live. I will bless you. I will honor you and crown your head. I ask you to enter into a covenant relationship with me. With God as the foundation of our home crucified to ourselves, and in mutual love. I love you above all others. I give myself to you, and ask you to be my covenant partner in a lasting marriage.
